

ENGL 3221

British Lit of the Romantic Age

Online

Elizabeth Weston

This course will focus on the literary movement of Romanticism (fiction and poetry from the late 18th to early 19th century), considering how its authors explore the imagination, subjectivity, emotion, nature, and the sublime, among others. We will also reflect on the texts' cultural context, particularly in terms of their concern with social justice and social change.