

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING FELLOWSHIP

The College of Arts & Sciences (CAS) welcomes applications for our Experiential Learning Fellowship. This funding is to support CAS students who will be participating in otherwise unpaid mentored research, practica placements, or internships related to their field of study. CAS is offering $400 one-time awards to eligible applicants for Spring 2023.

Eligibility:

Applicants must have declared majors in the College of Arts & Sciences and be participating in otherwise unpaid mentored research or practica placements or internship placements related to their field of study. Applicants must identify a sponsoring faculty member who has reviewed and approved the research/internship proposal and will monitor the placement.

Selection Criteria:

- Declared major in a College of Arts & Sciences program and in good academic standing
- Relevance of proposed experience to program of study
- Relevance of proposed experience to planned career pathway after degree completion
- Imminence of planned graduation date
- Confirmation of placement by sponsoring faculty member

Selection Process:

The awardee will be selected by a committee composed of members of the Dean's staff. All candidates will be informed of the committee's decision.

Applications should be submitted to the below link no later than Friday, October 14th, 2022.
