

DUAL MHA/MBA DEGREE PROGRAM

The University of Memphis School of Public Health and the Fogelman College of Business & Economics now offers a 71-credit dual degree program that provides an educational experience in both healthcare management and general business knowledge and skills. This program can be completed in a full-time schedule of 24 months or a part-time schedule for more flexibility.

MHA/MBA CURRICULUM & SAMPLE SCHEDULE

MBA courses are in black and MHA courses are in blue. Please note, some courses must be taken in order, but others may be changed based on availability. MHA and MBA academic advisors are available to assist in scheduling all degree requirements.

SUMMER 1 SCMS 7313 Supply Chain Operations Management ACCT 7080 Financial and Managerial Accounting for Managers ECON 7100 Economics for the Global Executive	SUMMER 2 MIS 7650 Information Systems in the Global Enterprise FIR 7155 Global Financial Management HADM 7190 Internship
FALL 1 HADM 7100 Day One HADM 7105 Health Policy and Organization of Health Services HADM 7116 Administration of Health Services Organizations HADM 7605 Human Resources SCMS 7110 Introduction to Business Analytics	FALL 2 PUBH 7710 Healthcare Economics HADM 7103 Health Planning HADM 7206 Managerial Epidemiology MKTG 7140 Global Strategic Marketing
SPRING 1 HADM 7101 Day One HADM 7102 Health Law HADM 7204 Healthcare Quality and Outcomes Management HADM 7208 Healthcare Finance II BA 7503 Business Analytics for Managers (pre-requisite: SCMS 7110)	SPRING 2 HADM 7110 Leadership and Organizational Change or BA 7501 Leadership and Negotiation HADM 7109 Health Administration Information Systems PUBH 7502 Health Policy Theory and Methods HADM 7210* Comprehensive Experience in Healthcare Management MGMT 7160* Global Strategic Management

 Must be taken in last semester*

Admission decisions to the MHA and MBA programs are separate. Students must apply and be accepted into each program independently. For information to apply to each program, please visit:

MHA Program

MBA Program