assignment, housing selection, or room changes. The University reserves the right to deny residency to any student with an outstanding fee balance or hold.

f. Residents signing a contract for Summer are only eligible for housing if they are enrolled in Summer I session courses or are enrolled in the next Fall semester and have a Fall housing application submitted.

g. Residents must immediately report any change in enrollment or other eligibility status that affects their eligibility to live in University Housing to the Office of Housing and Residence Life at housing@memphis.edu.

h. The Director reserves the right to refuse any housing application, to change or cancel any assignment, or to terminate a resident's occupancy for justifiable cause. Receipt of the housing application does not guarantee a housing assignment.

1. Duration and Dates of Occupancy

a. This contract is binding for the entire academic year, that portion of the academic year remaining when occupancy begins, or the specified period of occupancy for those signing Summer contracts. This contract can only be cancelled as allowed under Sec. 7 Financial Responsibility, Cancellation and Termination. Similarly, not returning midyear (after the Fall Semester) does not release a resident from the remainder of the contract for the Spring term.

b. Residents may be relieved of continuing housing charges for the academic year (Fall and Spring Semester) if one of the following conditions is met and they cease occupancy:

i. The resident is graduating at the end of the Fall semester;

ii. The resident is not returning to the University for the Spring semester as a student;

iii. The resident is participating in study abroad for the Spring semester;

iv. The resident is called to active military duty; or

v. The resident is otherwise no longer eligible to reside in housing, in line with eligibility standards set by the Department of Housing and Residence Life.

If any of the above applies, the resident is required to vacate their space, in accordance with University procedures, within twenty-four (24) hours of their last fall exam.

c. An additional charge, in accordance with the Fee Schedule, will be assessed for residents who live in University Housing outside the established contract period or who fail to complete the check-out procedure.

d. A separate contract will be made for residents of GSFH for the Summer Session. Residents with Spring Semester housing contracts wishing to remain in GSFH for the following summer are not required to be enrolled for summer classes, provided they have registered for fall classes, and have applied for Summer Session housing and the following academic year housing.

1. Room Assignments/Change/Consolidation/Accommodations

a. Room Assignments.

i. The Department reserves the right to make all hall and room assignments. Factors considered for assignment include but are not limited to the resident's place of permanent residence, roommate choice, classification, involvement in campus communities, and availability of accommodations.

ii. There is no guarantee that the Department will be able to comply with roommate requests. Roommate pairings are made without regard to race, color, creed, or national origin.

iii. All single occupants must live alone and not have roommates or other occupants, unless their space is designated as a shared student apartment by the Department.

iv. An apartment may only be occupied by members of the resident's immediate family which includes spouse and/or legal dependents. Any change in family status must be reported to the Residence Life Coordinator for GSFH within five (5) days of the occurrence. This includes, but is not limited to, divorce, separation, or any other situation creating ineligibility.

v. The maximum number of family members allowed to reside at GSFH are as follows: 1-bedroom units - no more than 3 people; 2-bedroom units - no more than 4 people.

b. Changes

i. Changes in hall and room assignments may be made when deemed advisable or necessary based on the failure to adhere to Department policies, occupancy demands, facility issues, community concerns, or other special needs.

ii. GSFH residents seeking to change assignments should contact the Department office. If permission is granted, the resident should see the Residence Life Coordinator for GSFH for additional check-in information. The resident will be liable for rent at both apartments if the resident maintains possession of keys to both apartments.

c. Accommodations. The University provides reasonable accommodations for residents with a disability when approved by Disability Resources for Students (DRS). Residents needing accommodations, including for service or support animals, should contact DRS at 901-678-2880.

1. Resident Responsibilities

The residence halls at University of Memphis are intended to support student success. Therefore, all students living in the residence halls have the following responsibilities, which are intended to support all individuals who live, work and support the housing community:

a. Residents agree to abide by all terms, conditions, policies, rules, laws and regulations of the University of Memphis, the state of Tennessee, the United States as well as local laws of the City of Memphis.

b. Residents agree to abide by all conduct and community standards as delineated in the Student Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities and the University Housing Policies.

c. GSFH units are unfurnished, and the resident is responsible for any overage payment of utilities. Utilities are covered up to a monthly cap (as billed by MLGW). Overages will be billed to the resident's account.

1. Rates and Payments

a. Housing rates for the specified term are listed on the Housing and Residence Life website. Billing is based upon the term rate for the type of housing selected and billed as such at the beginning of each term. Rates are subject to change without notice.

b. Housing fees are due in full by the fee payment deadline set by the University & Student Business Services office. Residents who are unable to pay in full may request an installment plan through the University & Student Business Services website. Fees may be paid at the University & Student Business Services office, The University of Memphis, P. O. Box 1000, Dept. 313, Memphis, TN 38152 or online through the resident's TigerXpress account. Checks and money orders must be made payable to the University of Memphis.

c. There are no refunds of housing fees after a student has checked in, unless approved by the Director or designated review committee.

d. Charges will be prorated when the resident is forced to withdraw from the residence halls (1) because of personal medical reasons confirmed in writing by a licensed physician, or (2) at the request of the institution for other than disciplinary reasons. Full refund will be made in case of death. Residents who occupy a space past the last day of the semester may incur housing charges.

1. Financial Responsibility, Cancellation and Termination

Prior to Move In

- a. If a student has completed a housing application and received a housing assignment, but has not moved into on-campus housing, the student may cancel their housing assignment within seven (5) business days of the notification of the housing assignment without incurring any additional fees.
- b. Students that cancel their housing assignment after seven (5) business days of their assignment letter being sent will be responsible for a $300 Housing Administrative Fee and will be subject to 25% of the cost of their housing assignment.
- i. Appeals. Residents who request to cancel their contracts due to extenuating circumstances may appeal charges assessed upon to the Director or their designee by filing a written appeal, via the UofM Housing Portal, within five (5) business days of the notice of termination or the request to cancel. Residents are responsible for providing supporting documentation with their appeal submission. Within fourteen (14) business days of receipt of the appeal, the Director of Housing and Residence Life or their designee will notify the resident of the decision in writing to their official University email address or other provided email address. The decision of the Director of Housing and Residence Life or their designee is final.

After Move In

- a. Once a student has checked in, the housing contract has been activated and the student is responsible for all housing charges associated with the contract for the entirety of the contract term, regardless of whether the University is currently providing instruction on-ground or on-line which shall be determined in the discretion of the University.
- b. Immediate suspension from housing. If a resident fails to comply with the terms of this contract in a manner that compromises the safety, health, and/or well-being of the residence hall community, this contract and the resident's occupancy of the residence hall space may be immediately suspended by the Director for a defined period. Notification of an interim suspension from housing will be communicated to the resident in writing.
- c. Termination by the University. The University may terminate the contract in the event of any of the following nonexclusive reasons: ii. Disciplinary action or violation of University or Department policy including the Code of Student

Rights and Responsibilities

- iii. Withdrawal from the University.

1. Residents withdrawing from the University are required to cancel and vacate the residence halls within 24 hours of withdrawal.

iv. Failure to maintain eligible student status.

v. Violation of any term of the contract.

vi. Violation of any applicable law; or

vii. Change in marital or familial status.

Termination of the contract will be communicated in writing to the resident. Residents may appeal the termination of the Housing Contract to the Director of Residence Life or their designee by filing a written appeal within two (2) business days of the notice of termination. Within two (2) business days of receipt of the appeal, the Director of Residence Life or their designee will notify the resident of the decision in writing. The decision of the Director of Residence Life or their designee is final. Termination of the contract by the Department does not relieve resident of any fees and/or charges owed under this contract, unless approved by the Director or designee.

d. Cancellation/Termination by the Resident. Housing contracts are for the academic year. Residents requesting to terminate or cancel their housing contract will not be released from the contract and any applicable fees and/or charges unless approved by the Director or designee through the appeal process.

i. Appeals. Residents who request to cancel their contracts due to extenuating circumstances may appeal charges assessed to the Director or their designee by filing a written appeal, via the UofM Housing Portal, within five (5) business days of the notice of termination or the request to cancel. Residents are responsible for providing supporting documentation with their appeal submission. Within fourteen (14) business days of receipt of the appeal, the Director of Housing and Residence Life or their designee will notify the resident of the decision in writing to their official University email address or other provided email address. The decision of the Director of Housing and Residence Life or their designee is final.

1. Loss or Damage to Resident Personal Property/Abandoned Property

a. The University is not responsible for loss or damage of goods or personal property. Residents are strongly encouraged to consider carrying some form of personal insurance if their family's policy does not cover their property while it is located at the University. Residents are strongly encouraged to remove any valuable items from their space during break periods.

b. Any personal property remaining in the room after the resident vacates the premises shall be considered abandoned after thirty (30) calendar days. The University reserves the right to bill the resident for any costs associated with removal and disposal of belongings left behind.

1. Loss or Damage to University Property

a. Resident assumes liability for university property missing from a resident's room and for property damage beyond normal wear and tear, including but not limited to, removing stains, odors, fleas, etc. caused by the resident, guests, family members and/or animals of the resident. In addition, all floor/community residents agree to be collectively responsible for damages to public areas that cannot be attributed to specific individuals. Damage charges include replacement cost(s) along with any associated labor cost. Resident agrees that any damage charges shall be assessed to the resident's account.

b. Resident agrees to be responsible for any fees or expenses incurred by the University to repair or replace key cards, keys, locks or other related items.

1. Room Entry/Inspection

a. The University reserves the right to enter and/or search any residence hall or apartment room or space. Searches will be authorized by the Director or his/her designee. Searches may also be authorized by the Dean of Students or her/his designee. Searches will be conducted by appropriate University staff members and will seize items not permitted in the residence (weapons etc.). Searches may be authorized anytime there is reasonable cause to believe that there is a health or safety concern. The University also has the right to contact the University or City of Memphis police who may elect to request a search warrant.

b. The University assumes no responsibility for the theft, destruction, or loss of confiscated property.

1. Fire Safety

a. The safety and security of residents is as much a personal responsibility as it is a University responsibility. Therefore, residents agree to use reasonable care in ensuring fire safety and to participate in fire drills and to exit buildings in the event of a fire alarm. Resident agrees to comply with all University Housing Policies related to fire safety including, but not limited, to policies related to cooking appliances and smoking.

1. Firearms, Weapons and Dangerous Devices

a. Storage, possession, or detonation of firearms (including pellet, BB, and air guns), weapons, ammunition, or explosives of any kind are prohibited.

1. Guests

a. The permitting of guests is a privilege which can be removed. Resident always assumes responsibility for the behavior and actions of their guests. Guests must comply with all University and Housing and Residence Life policies.

1. General Terms

a. Addenda. Rules and regulations appearing in the most recent Housing Fee Schedule, Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities, University Housing Policies or revisions as may be periodically instituted by university are made a part of this agreement.

b. Force Majeure. In the event of an unforeseeable cause beyond the control of and without the negligence of the University, including but not limited to fire, flood, other severe weather, acts of God, interruption of utility services, acts of terrorism, pandemic, epidemic, government restrictions, or the like, the University reserves the right to maintain the safety of the premises by any means, including but not limited to closing its University residence facilities and/or temporarily or permanently removing Students from University residence facilities. Such closure and any termination of this agreement shall not be considered a breach of contract, and the University shall not be obligated to refund any amount already paid pursuant to the Contract. In no event shall the University be obliged to provide alternate housing to students or to rebuild or replace any affected premises.

c. Release; Indemnification; Hold Harmless. The University shall not be liable for any personal accident, injury or illness, including death, to any student or the occupants of student residence facilities, or guests or invitees of such students or occupants, or for any damage, theft or loss of personal property, except as authorized by and allowed pursuant to T.C.A. Section 9-8-301 et seq. In consideration for permission to enter into this contract and reside in University Housing, residents agree to release the University, its Board of Trustees, officers, employees, agents and representatives from any liability, foreseen or unforeseen, on account of any accident, injury, illness, property damage, theft or loss, including death, not caused by the University of Memphis' gross negligence. Further, residents agree to indemnify the University against any claims arising out of their or their guest's use or occupancy of the residence unit or any other properties or premises contemplated under the terms of this Agreement.

d. Subletting Prohibited. This contract may not be transferred or reassigned. Subletting of one's contract/room is strictly prohibited.

e. Photo Disclosure. University has the right to reproduce, use, exhibit, display, broadcast, distribute and create derivative works of university related photographs or videotaped images taken in public spaces of on-campus housing residences for use in connection with the activities of the University for promotion, publicizing or explaining the University and University housing.
