

The Bible as Literature

ENGL 4461 | Summer 2023 | Dr. Clement

This course studies the sacred texts of Judaism and Christianity as works of literature, with attention to the historical, cultural, and literary contexts of the Bible's composition. Students will read books of the "Old" and "New" Testaments, as well as the Apocrypha and study theories as to how the Hebrew Bible and Christian Bible, as we know them today, came together.